2015 Hot Shot Contest

Sport Description

Have you ever watched your favorite NBA players compete in All-Star Weekend festivities? Do you and a friend ever think to yourselves that those shots are cake? Well here's your chance to sink buckets! The University of Iowa Intramural Sports Program is hosting its own Hot Shot Contest! You and a partner won’t be shooting against any NBA All-stars, but it will definitely give you bragging rights and a new T-shirt. Grab a friend and come on down to the Field House South Gym to see which duo has the hottest shot on campus!

Important Information

1. Before the event all players must present a valid UI or state-issued photo ID to participate.
2. Each team will have 60 seconds to score as many points as possible from any of the 5 designated locations.

4. The clock will start upon the shooter's first release.
5. Each basket made at a location will be valued between 1 and 5 points marked on the floor.
