Sport Description
It’s the Friday Night Series – Saturday edition! And it’s FREE. This October, one of the Intramural Friday Night Series events is Bowling. But, with a little twist to the Friday Night Series, Bowling and Mini-Golf will be played on a Saturday night. It’s time to line the pins up and knock them down in this team competition event. Teams of four will compete against other teams to accumulate the highest total team score over a combined three games. This event will be held at Colonial Lanes so grab some friends and put your bowling skills to the test!

Important Information

1. All participants need their valid University Student ID or state-issued photo ID to check-in.

2. Teams must have four players to complete registration and all players will bowl three games each. All 12 scores will be added together, and the team with the highest score from all three games combined will be crowned champion.

3. Teams will have two hours and 15 minutes to complete their three games. If unable to complete their games in the given time limit, their scores will be tallied at the point at which time expired.

4. This competition will be held at Colonial Lanes. This is still a University event which means Alcohol and Tobacco use is prohibited while participating.

5. In order to receive Men’s or Women’s Coach’s Corner Intramural Sports Points Championship points, teams must have four men or four women, respectively, signed-in and participating in the event at all times. In order to receive Co-Rec Coach’s Corner Intramural Sports Points Championship points, teams must have two men and two women signed-in and participating in the event at all times. More information on the Coach’s Corner Intramural Sports Points Championship can be found at: http://recserv.uiowa.edu/coachs-corner-intramural-sports-points-championship.

6. Bowling will be scratch and no handicaps will be used.

7. Any forfeit/no-show will result in a $20 Forfeit Fine. This fine is charged to the University Bill of the team captain.
